8. Provisions regarding the distribution of assets upon dissolution are:
(How will the assets be distributed, if the nonprofit corporation is dissolved?)

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in your state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. In witness whereof, we have heretofore subscribed our names this 5th day of July, 2013.

9. For name availability purposes, list the type of business the nonprofit corporation will be conducting:

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of 501(c)(3), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The purpose of the corporation is to provide instruction and training that improves and develops individuals' knowledge and capabilities in astronomy. The instruction and training activities will include public and private star gazing programs using telescopes, public lectures, and telescope building courses. Star gazing programs will consist of opportunities for the public, as well as private groups, to view objects in the night sky through telescopes provided by the corporation. Star charts, digital cameras, and iPads with astronomical software may also be used. Public lectures will consist of the delivery of astronomical facts and the facilitation of interactive demonstrations, supported by the best available science, by the corporation. Telescope building courses will consist of month-long workshops during which participants will make a telescope mirror and construct a telescope mount for their personal use under the guidance of the corporation.
